

WASHINGTON, SUNDAY, JULY 30, 1905.

Two Pages Today

The news for Monday is of such extraordinary importance that it takes two pages to tell the details.

This page devoted entirely to the sale of "The Union Outfitters" stock—and another for our semi-annual "Rummage Sale"—Page 1, Third section.

"The Dependable Store"—7th and K Sts.

Two Great Sales Tomorrow

—sale of "The Union Outfitters" Stock of Men's Clothing, Hats, Shoes, and Furnishings at 50c on the Dollar.

—Our semi-annual "RUMMAGE SALE" of regular summer stocks on page 1, third section.

Bargain offerings entirely without precedent.

Great Throngs Attend the Sale of "The Union Outfitters to Men Co." Stock of Clothing, Shoes, & Furnishings Bought at Less Than 50c on the Dollar

The announcement that Goldenberg's had bought the entire stock of "The Union Outfitters to Men Co." spread like wildfire—and the first day's selling passed all precedent. The Washington public is quick to respond when the occasion deserves it—and this sale of men's high-grade clothing, shoes, hats, and furnishings at sensationally low prices struck a responsive chord.

"The Union Outfitters to Men Co." was established less than six months ago with the object of supplying Union goods to all those interested in the welfare of union labor. The stocks were gathered with extreme care—and being all bought for this season's business, they naturally represent only the choicest and newest styles. The fact that there is no "plunder" or old style goods in this sale gives it greater value than can be estimated. The sale continues tomorrow—with all the broken gaps made by yesterday's big selling filled in with additional lots of the "Union Outfitters" stocks.
